Job Description for House Helper in the Student Resident Home

- Job Title – Resident Home House Helper
- Job Summary – Jungle Kids for Christ (JKC) is a growing ministry whose goal is to empower children of the Ecuadorian jungle by sharing the gospel through education and teaching values, and leadership. We carry out those goals through our different ministries. Along with a growing school, JKC runs a student home for at risk girls. The House Helper is responsible for assisting and working alongside the other house managers for attending to the girls before and after school Monday through Friday while maintaining an organized and healthy loving environment for them.
- Commitment length – minimum one year (August to July), but two years is preferred.
- Responsibilities and Duties
    - Establish an environment conducive to the spiritual, mental, social, and physical well-being of the children.
    - Have skills to comfort students and make them feel safe and loved.
    - Be able to guide the students to be independent and at the same time to function as a daily support.
    - Promote cleanliness and respect for themselves and within the home in general.
    - Promote the students' complete nutrition and model a healthy environment with their daily decisions, i.e., the girls should see that the house helper chooses to eat healthy, exercise, pray daily, etc.
    - Be involved in the spiritual development of the girls.
    - Daily and open communication with house managers.
    - Be flexible at all times, understanding that each girl in the house has a different personality and temperament and may require different kinds of discipline to help each one achieves personal, positive goals, according to their individual abilities.
- Qualifications and Requirements
    - Christian, single female.
